

Programme: Pension Policy Research Group Conference Tuesday 21 June 2016

Do We Need a Radical Change in Pension Provision in Ireland?

Venue: Ui Chadhain Theatre (Room 2041B), Arts Building, Trinity College Dublin

Allocation of Time: Speakers - 20 minutes; Discussion - 15 minutes at end of every two papers

Time	Title of Presentation
8:45	Opening of the conference: David Begg, Chairperson of The Pensions Authority
	Income & Wealth, Gender & Working Life
	Chairperson: Maureen Maloney
9:00	Income and Wealth of Retired Persons in Ireland Jim Stewart (Trinity College Dublin)
9:20	Gendered Impacts of Extended Working Life Policies in Austerity Countries. Áine Ní Léime (NUI Galway), T. Addabbo, A. Liberaki, P. Perista, N. Duvvury (NUI Galway), P. Albuquerque, C. Finn,
9:40-9:55	Discussion
	Pension Taxation
	Chairperson: Michelle Maher
9:55	Pensions and Taxation Across the EU Emer Mulligan (NUI Galway) & Dinali Wijeratne (NUI Galway)
10:15	Tax Expenditure on Occupational Pensions in Ireland: Relevance, Cost & Distribution Micheál Collins (Nevin Economic Research Institute) & Gerry Hughes (Trinity College Dublin)
10:35-10:50	Discussion
10:50-11:10	Coffee Break
	Auto-Enrollment or Social Insurance?
	Chairperson: Micheál Collins
11:10	Mind the Gap! The divergence between age of retirement and age of entitlement in Ireland Joe Larragy (NUI Maynooth)
11:30	What are the risks of automatic enrolment for employees? An analysis using a bounded rationality framework Maureen Maloney (NUI Galway) & Alma McCarthy (NUI Galway)
11:50-12:05	Discussion
12:05	Auto-Enrol – Why the single item agenda? Michelle Maher (NUI Maynooth)
12:25	A Universal Pension for Ireland Eamon Murphy (Social Justice Ireland)
12:45-1:00	Discussion
1:00	Close of conference